I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

Nothing to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. Anti-Communist Operations No. 10 was completed as a two-week tutorial by seven students on 17 January. Conducting this particular ACO as a tutorial was appropriate in this instance since all seven students were from one DDP division, FE. Student critiques indicated that the informality and greater freedom of discussion which prevailed made this a stimulating and useful seminar. It is feeling, however, that some of the student enthusiasm stemmed from the fact that no written work was required.

2. USIA has provided SIC with the original mats of a paper entitled "Comparison of Major Propaganda Themes." We are having this reproduced for use in Party Organization and Operations and in tutorial training programs.

5. [] attended lectures at the National War College on 20 and 21 January, entitled "The Communist Movement Outside The Soviet Bloc" and "Communist Subversion In The USA." Of the lectures he heard in the current NWC series [] felt that two were of particular value for SIC's use, [] on "The Development And Nature Of Communism In China," and [] on "The Communist Movement Outside The Soviet Bloc." Tapes or transcriptions of these lectures have been requested through the Registrar's office.
